the author helps readers explore and identify the hiding patterns they have developed and guides them toward the healing grace and truth that god has built into safe connected relationships with himself and others a year after the disappearance and commencement of the international search for malaysia airlines flight 370 no sign of the plane has been found no debris no bodies no sign of the much talked about black box richard belzer george noory and david wayne want to know why scrutinizing the theories the media and politicians claim are the most likely reasons the plane crashed belzer noory and wayne argue that if a year after a huge boeing 777 has gone missing and there s still no sign of it whatsoever it s time to think outside the box the public needs to stop being misled if a plane and its passengers went missing once what s to stop it from happening again some of the theories the authors consider seem implausible on the surface but the thorough research they ve done and the continual failure of politicians aviation authorities and military members around the world to give any indication they re wrong makes their arguments as good if not better than the more widely shared ones the title of this thought provoking volume someone is hiding something is a line spoken by former malaysian prime minister mahathir mohamad perhaps the only government official to publicly acknowledge the true reason that neither flight 370 nor the 239 people onboard have been found architecture manifests as a space of concealment and unconcealment lethe and alêtheia enclosure and disclosure where its making and agency are both hidden and revealed with an urgency to amplify narratives that are overlooked silenced and unacknowledged in and by architectural spaces histories and theories this book contends the need for a critical study of hiding in the context of architectural processes it urges the understanding of inherent opportunities power structures and covert strategies whether socio cultural geo political environmental or economic as they are related to their hidescapes the constructed landscapes of our built environments participating in the architectures of hiding looking at and beyond the intentions and agency that architects possess architectural spaces lend themselves as apparatuses for various forms of hiding and un hiding the examples explored in this book and the creative works presented in the interviews enclosed in the interludes of this publication cover a broad range of geographic and cultural contexts discursively disclosing hidden aspects of architectural meaning the book investigates the imaginative intrigue of concealing and revealing in design processes along with moral responsibilities and ethical dilemmas inherent in crafting concealment through the making and reception of architecture
